Class Prophecy

It is now the year of '58. I am now living in Columbus, Georgia. I have just finished my house work and have decided to rest a few minutes before I prepare lunch for my husband.

I hear steps on my front porch. As I glance through the window I see the paper boy going down the street. I decide to read the headlines while I am resting.

In flashing headlines I see "Master Sergeant Mac Tedder on Assignment in England." Mac is making the army his career.

Looking further down on the front page I see pictures of two men in navy uniforms. They are none other than Roy McMullen and Wayne Buckhalter who are spending Christmas holidays at home.

A column marked Atlanta—"A New Television Star Is Born," catches my attention. As I read it, joy creeps into my heart. Lessie Ruth Young is appearing each night at eight-thirty on Channel 5.

As I continue to thumb through the paper I find that my classmates of '54-'55 are making great progress. Clara Phillips and Mary Hudson are now in the Air Force. Clara is a stewardess on the Southern Airways. Mary is a nurse and is being sent to Germany for extra training.

Glancing over the next page I see where Hiram O'Hearn is stationed at Turner Field in Albany, Georgia. He is a sergeant in the Air Force.

I hurriedly turn to the social section. Here I learn more of other classmates. Delma Williams, having married before finishing school, has joined her husband who is in service in Texas. Edna Earle Hill and her two year old daughter is visiting her sister-in-law, Vivian Lisenby, who is now living in Miami, Florida. These girls also married before finishing school.

This is certainly a busy time for the Jakin merchants. The college students are coming home for Christmas. Evelyn O'Hearn and Betty Murkerson are home from Martha Berry. Junior Cannon is home from the University of Georgia.

Smiling at me from the next page is Allene McArdle. She is to be married in June to a lieutenant in the army. Allene is a newspaper reporter for the Dothan Eagle.

I never find much interest in the ad section but the word "WATCH REPAIR" catches my attention. Why it's Pete Hudson advertising his watch shop! He has received an honorable discharge from the navy and has his own business in Jakin.

Deward Harper is now in the grocery business and is advertising for help.

Glancing at the clock, I discover that I have been sitting here for over an hour. I am proud of the success my classmates have made. I pray that success and happiness will be theirs always.

Pat Edwards

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of '54-'55, being for once, in sound state of mind hereby leave this last Will and Testament at dear ole Jakin High School. As a whole class we "Will" peace and contentment after our loud chattering voices have left these "Halls of Ivy," hoping our echoing laughter fails to deafen the remaining students. As individuals we leave the following:

- I, Edna Earle Newberry, will my ability to talk to Robert Frith.
- I, Lessie Ruth Young, will my love for excitement to Pat Tolar.
- I, Evelyn O'Hearn, will my chewing gum to any unfortunate Junior girl who can't think without it.
- I, Clara Phillips, to whom Mary Ellen Williams willed her boyfriends, now will them to the Junior girls who need them.
- I, Allene McArdle, will my ready smile and quick temper to Jeanette Hill.
- I, Pat Edwards, will my laugh and ability to argue to Margaret Frith.
- I, Hiram O'Hearn, will my sincerity to Virginia McMullen.
- I, Vivian Hill, will my ability as a secretary to the Senior Class secretary of '55-'56.
- I, Mary Hudson, will my ability to solicit donations to Myrna Bruner.
- I, Mac Tedder, will my bashfulness to Rudolph Williams.
- I, Pete Hudson, will my ability to study to Anne James.
- I, Wayne Buckhalter, will my love for girls to Ivey Hill.
- I, Junior Cannon, will my personality to - - - er, on second thought I'll take it with me.
- I, Delma McMullen, will my trim figure and curly hair to Lucy Love.
- I, Deward Harper, will my ability to get along with others to Lamar Miller.
- I, Roy McMullen, will my ability to play basketball to Bill Mann.
- I, Betty Murkerson, will my ability to dance to Jane Ellen Reese.
